

TUITION BREAK DOWN – METROPOLITAN PERFORMING ARTS

Tuition is due on the 1st of each month and may be paid via auto payment, check, or credit card. There are monthly and biannual payment options available.

A $25.00 late fee will be accrued for all payments made after the 15th of the month.

Refunds and/or credits may be provided in extenuating circumstances (i.e. serious medical issues, relocation, etc.).

Technique classes may be added, changed, or dropped prior to the first week of the coming month. Just fill out the Add/Drop form available on our website or in the lobby. If dropping a class, charges will accrue until the Add/Drop form is received.

We are unable to refund classes dropped mid-month.

ADDITIONAL FEES

Registration Fee (due at time of enrollment, paid only once per year) $30.00/Single or $50.00/Family. If you're not sure you're going to love your class, you may pay a $20 drop in fee for any technique class to make sure your student is happy and in the right place.

FAMILY DISCOUNTS, ETC.

If you have 2 or more family members enrolled, you receive a 10% discount. Tuition paid bi-annually will receive a 5% discount off total tuition fees.

NOTE: Tuition paid bi-annually is NON- REFUNDABLE

PRODUCTION FEES FOR MAIN STAGE SHOWS

Students enrolled in a class have the opportunity to audition for our main stage productions. Those students enrolled in three classes or more (one acting, one dance, and one music class) are guaranteed a role in our main stage productions. A $200.00, non-refundable production fee includes all production costs, rehearsal fees, and show costumes. Cast members are responsible to provide their own show shoes and base makeup.

For teens cast in Antigone, there is a $150, non-refundable production fee in addition to the monthly class fee.

PERFORMANCE TICKETS

Tickets for main stage shows will be available online prior to each show.

Adults range from $12-$18 per ticket. Students and seniors range from $12-$14 per ticket.
