BRIEF SYNOPSIS: CATS is a musical composed by Andrew Lloyd Webber, based on Old Possum’s Book of Practical Cats by T. S. Eliot. The musical tells the story of a tribe of cats called the Jellicles and the night they make what is known as “the Jellicle choice” and decide which cat will ascend to the Heaviside Layer and come back to a new life.

Yes, in case you missed it, I went here. A musical based on a book of poems with no real plot or storyline. All the fun aside, this show lends a very important education stepping stone that children don’t normally get. “Cats” the musical requires the performers to use movement to tell the story in a way that only the 80’s could have provided. Many schools wouldn’t dare touch a show that has no dialogue and people dancing in unitards and yarn wigs. This experience has been really challenging for most of the students. Honestly, it also is this ages first “dance show.” I am happy to report that as far as the children go, nobody died during the making of this musical and more confident dancers are ready to take on their next assignment; which I am certain they are going to love.

Many people in our community do not understand the difficulty the Board or Directors and I have with providing these opportunities. A theatre that is state of the art and full service in California, seating double the amount of the one you are seated in today costs 1/2 the amount of money and costs between $15-$22 per ticket. A costume like you see today would cost anywhere between $50-$75. The wig runs $35-$60 each. When you do the math you understand that non-profits like MPAA are a rarity. It takes a community to support something to make it come to life.

I feel blessed to have many supporters and really would like to encourage you to get involved. We are constantly looking to grow Metropolitan and to improve the experience for you whether it is you as a student, parent or audience member. MPAA is shaping lives and building our arts community. My heart is so full of sheer love for the performers you see in today’s show. Thank you for supporting this program and the wonderful kids that it serves because they deserve the best! MPAA needs your continued support, and you or someone you know, may be able to take this not-for-profit arts school to the level we know it should be at. Thank you for your patronage and always remember that every time you buy a ticket, ad or even pay tuition you are a part of making this happen. THANK YOU!
