

Hiring Call for a Piano/Music instructor for the Season 13 school year.

DESCRIPTION

Seeking passionate, flexible, fun-loving, and diverse in-person teaching artists with music and performance backgrounds available this upcoming school year. Metropolitan Performing Arts is an educational theater company for children located in Southwest Washington. We are currently hiring a contracted music/piano instructor for our season 13 classes.

MPA's mission is to enrich the SW Washington community by nurturing a lifelong passion and appreciation for live arts through education and performance opportunities. We do this through; involving, cultivating, nurturing and enhancing. To be a home where everyone is seen, heard, and valued through theater and live arts. Metropolitan Performing Arts is, and has always been, here to serve our community. We believe in the transformational power of theater and arts to inspire social change. We embrace equity, diversity and inclusion in our organization and value everyone's life experiences. We celebrate unique perspectives and contributions in hope that all people, regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual identity, culture, age, gender expression, background, ability, economic status, education, credentials, and experience are engaged in our programming.

Important Considerations:

-Our theater is located at 6403 E. Mill Plain in Vancouver, Washington

-Music 1 class meets Tuesday evenings from 6:30pm-7:30pm.

-Private 1-1 lessons are scheduled based on student and teacher availability.

-Music 1 class uses in-class exercises and piano studies to teach students piano skills, music theory, sight reading, and musicianship to help advance their musicality. Students should be introduced to basic piano and music theory.

-Ideally, we would like to hire people who are energetic and passionate about teaching who have performance experience.

-Must have a reliable form of transportation

- If you are not available at the class time mentioned above, but are still interested in teaching or music directing, please reach out to be in our instructor pool for the future.
